OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR (ADMINISTRATION)

1. DEPUTY DIRECTOR (ADMINISTRATION)

The Deputy Director (Administration) is in charge of administrative support for the Agency. (See organization chart, Figure 1.)

AUDITOR-IN-CHIEF

2. MISSION

- a. The Auditor-in-Chief is responsible for the independent audit of all matters relating to the receipt, disbursement, and application of funds and assets available to CIA. He shall give due regard to generally accepted principles of auditing, including consideration of the effectiveness of accounting organizations and systems; internal funds and property accounting controls; accounting procedures and responsibilities of operating components in relation to the receipt, custody, and use of funds, property and other assets; and other related administrative practices. His audit shall be concerned with the proper application of funds and property as prescribed in pertinent laws and regulations in the fulfillment of authorized functions. Subject to the foregoing the audit function may be only limited by the requirement that operational cover and security be maintained and that intelligence sources and methods be protected adequately.
- b. Audit reports containing findings and recommendations shall be prepared and pursued until all matters therein have been brought to a conclusive settlement.
